Jones' Action 'Vicious' Says Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller said Wednesday he had met with two candidates recommended by the AFL-CIO to the position of state labor commissioner despite contrary claims by the labor organization.
Rockefeller appointed Collins, a member of the Teamsters Union, to the post. The AFL-CIO and the Teamsters have been in competition for influence in the state.
Rockefeller said the two men recommended by the AFL-CIO's executive committee were "fine men." He said, however, that he had total confidence in Collins.
On another subject Rockefeller said he did not think the changes the people indicated they wanted were taking place in either the Highway Department or the state Game and Fish Commission.
Rockefeller has attacked both agencies frequently during his campaign and since taking office. He said he did not want control of the boards but that he felt people expected a change when they elected him.
Rockefeller said the situation the state Cosmetology Board is in is due to the "most vicious retaliatory move I have ever seen a state legislator pull."
Rockefeller was referring to an amendment tacked on to the Board's appropriation bill by Sen. Guy H. (Mutt) Jones of Conway. Jones' amendment makes it mandatory that the board members be confirmed by the state Senate before the Board can spend its appropriations for the next two years.
None of the six board members have been confirmed.

UN Schedules Another Meet on M. East

By WILLIAM N. OATIS
UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council is expected to meet again on the Middle East crisis Friday or Saturday after they receive Secretary-General U Thant's report on his peace mission to Cairo.
Cutting short his visit to Cairo by a day, Thant plans to return to his New York headquarters early Friday. A U.N. spokesman said the secretary-general spent a "cordial" three hours conferring with President Gamal Abdel Nasser.
The Soviet Union attempted to postpone the opening of the 15-nation council's debate Wednesday until Thant's return. But it failed to muster enough support to keep the question off the docket.
The United States and Britain suffered a setback when the Canadian-Danish resolution they supported failed to get enough backing to be put to a vote.
The resolution asked council support for Thant's efforts to "pacify the situation" and invited him to report on his return from Cairo. Ambassador George Ignatieff of Canada asked the council members to consult on it after Wednesday's session ended. But the Soviet Union, India, Bulgaria and Mali refused as a gesture of support for Egypt, whose delegate charged that the resolution was an attempt to sabotage Thant's mission.
"I am completely at a loss to understand what is happening here," U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg said heatedly.
Goldberg told the council earlier the United States is willing to join the Soviet Union, France and Britain in efforts both within and outside the U.N. to prevent war in the Middle East.
Soviet Ambassador Nikolai T. Fedorenko did not reject the proposal for Big Four efforts—made first by France—but said if the United States and Britain really wanted to relax tension, they should "withdraw from the Mediterranean their fleets which constitute one of the most serious causes of tensions in that part of the world."
Ready to Fight
LONDON (AP)—Chaim Topol, Israeli star of the hit musical "Fiddler on the Roof," says he is ready to quit the show if needed to fight for his country.
The 31-year-old actor and singer, who once served in the Israeli army, was one of many Jews who contacted the Israeli Embassy in London Tuesday to offer their services.

Two Wounded In Shooting Exchange
SEOUL (AP)—A U.S. and a South Korean soldier were wounded today in a shooting exchange with suspected North Korean agents about four miles west of the site of an explosion Monday which killed two U.S. servicemen.
A U.S. spokesman said troops on guard at an outpost of the 2nd U.S. Infantry division fired on two unidentified persons and were attacked with grenades and small-arms fire.
No enemy casualties were found and both wounded soldiers were reported in good condition.
Panama Students Acting Up Again
PANAMA (AP)—For the second straight night, gasoline bombs believed thrown by students set fire Wednesday to an automobile bearing Canal Zone plates.
The attacks were believed expressions of student opposition to the negotiations between the United States and Panama for a new Canal Zone treaty.
Opponents of President Marco A. Robles have been speculating for the past several days that the negotiations are stalled and Panama has failed to obtain its basic demands.
Malaya Asks Ships in Settlement
TOKYO (AP)—Malaysia asked Japan today to give it two ocean-going cargo ships in settlement of the long-standing "blood debt" for Japanese atrocities in Malaya during World War II.
Japanese sources said Prime Minister Eisaku Sato has agreed to the request, but a final meeting on the issue is scheduled Friday.

White Sox, New York Post Wins

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Eddie Stanky grinned one of his impish grins and honed the needle he keeps handy for just such occasions.
His Chicago White Sox had crashed 21 hits including three home runs by Tom McCraw and walloped Minnesota 14-1 Wednesday. It was the kind of a game that makes managing a pleasure.
"I didn't like today's game," cracked Stanky. "The boys get more excitement out of the close ones."

If he wanted to see close games, Stanky should have been in Baltimore where Al Downing pitched New York to a 2-0 victory over the Orioles or at Detroit where Boston's Jim Lonborg flirted with trouble but escaped with a 1-0 victory over the Tigers. In the only other American League game played, Cleveland whipped Washington 9-1. Kansas City and California were idle.

In the National League, Los Angeles battered New York 8-2, Atlanta blanked St. Louis 2-0, Pittsburgh downed Houston 7-4 and Cincinnati split a double-header with Chicago, winning 4-3 and losing by the same score. San Francisco's game at Philadelphia was postponed.

Stanky couldn't contain his joy very long.

"Twenty-some hits," he said jubilantly. "This calls for a celebration. I've got to live it up."

McCraw, who had 22 home runs in his first four big league seasons, was just as happy.

"I've never had a game like this in pro ball before and I doubt if I'll ever have another," said the big first baseman, who drove in eight runs.

The three homers gave him six for the season and the big day could mean trouble for Stanky.

Analyzing McCraw before the season, Stanky pointed out that he had overcome one of his shortcomings.

"He used to get home run crazy occasionally. But he's licked the problem."

Oh yeah?

Home runs were the key for Downing and Lonborg too.

Mickey Mantle's ninth of the season and 50th career shot provided both Yankee runs against the Orioles and Dalton Jones' solo homer was the Red Sox' only run against the Tigers.

Mantle connected in the third inning with Horace Clarke on base and that was enough for Downing, who lifted his record to 4-3 with his first complete game.

The smallish left-hander allowed just two hits and struck out 13. After Luis Aparicio opened the game with a single and Curt Blefary walked, Downing struck out Paul Blair and Frank Robinson and got Brooks Robinson on a fly ball.

The only other Orioles to reach base were Andy Etchebarren, who doubled with two out in the fifth but was out trying to stretch it into a triple, and Aparicio, who walked in the ninth.

Lonborg permitted the Tigers four hits and struck out 11, making Jones' second-inning homer stand up.

He pitched out of major trouble four times. The Tigers got the first two men on in the second but Lonborg struck out Bill Freehan and got Ray Oyler on a double play ball. He struck out Norm Cash leaving Al Kaline stranded on third base in the fourth.

In the seventh, Lonborg got Dick McAuliffe and Don Wert, ending a bases-loaded threat and in the eighth Kaline opened with a double but was left on base when Willie Horton bounced out and Jim Northrup and Cash fanned.

Leon Wagner tagged a two-run homer as Cleveland bunched nine hits for as many runs in the third and fourth innings against the Senators.

Luis Tiant scattered seven hits including a home run by Frank Howard for his second victory.

Braves in Victory Over Cards

Denny Lemaster's fast ball was booming during his warm-up, and it didn't stop once the game started.

Lou Brock singled in the third inning — off a slider — but that was the only hit St. Louis got off the Atlanta southpaw Wednesday night as the Braves beat the Cardinals 2-0.

"Tonight just as soon as I started warming up," Lemaster said, "my fast ball was going boom, boom, boom, right over the plate and I knew that I had it."

The Cardinals had had it, too. While Lemaster was pitching the second one-hitter of his big league career and the eighth in the majors this season, Pittsburgh was beating Houston 7-4 and Los Angeles was trouncing the New York Mets 8-2 in other National League night games.

Cincinnati beat Chicago 4-3 and then lost to the Cubs by the same score in a day double-header. The San Francisco-Philadelphia night games was postponed because of cold weather.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox thrashed Minnesota 14-1, Cleveland thumped Washington 9-1, the New York Yankees shaded Baltimore 2-0 and Boston edged Detroit 1-0. Kansas City and California were not scheduled.

"I was having a hard time getting my curve ball down and went mostly to my fast ball for the last three innings," said Lemaster, who in warming for his previous start May 19, which he won 3-2 over Pittsburgh, had expressed concern that he was losing his fast ball.

"That wasn't a cheap hit that Brock got," he said, "it was a clean single to center. That took the pressure off me. It came early in the game, and I didn't have to worry about a no-hitter."

Felipe Alou reduced the pressure further in the fifth inning by belting a two-run homer, one of only three Atlanta hits off Bob Gibson, to insure Lemaster's fourth victory in five decisions.

Lemaster walked four, struck out four and lowered his earned run average to 2.47. His other one-hitter was against Cincinnati in 1964.

Roberto Clemente's ninth homer gave the Pirates a 4-4 tie with Houston in the eighth, and Donn Clendenon's sacrifice fly in the same inning drove in the decisive run. The Pirates added two more in the ninth.

The Astros were leading 3-0 and rookie Don Wilson had a one-hitter after five when the Pirates broke lose for three in the sixth on Maury Wills' single and Willie Stargell's two-run homer.

Houston then went ahead again briefly on Joe Morgan's double, a fielder's choice and Bill Mazeroski's throwing error. It was the first run in 15 innings of relief pitching off veteran Roy Face this year. He worked three innings against the Astros and ran his record to 3-0.

Ron Hunt and Willie Davis were the big Los Angeles guns against the Mets. Hunt had three hits, driving in two runs with a double and another with a single. Davis doubled home one run and singled in a pair.

Claude Osteen went the distance for his sixth victory against three losses, allowing the Mets single runs in the first and fifth innings.

Tony Perez' two-run homer in the sixth inning powered the league-leading Reds to their first-game victory. Deron Johnson, playing the first time since May 6 because of an injury, tied the score at 2-2 with a bases-loaded double in the fourth.

In the nightcap, the Reds were leading 3-2 in the eighth when Ernie Banks singled home a run off relief ace Ted Abernathy.

The Cubs then won it in the ninth. Adolph Phillips beat out a bunt, stole second and went to third on catcher John Edwards' throwing error. Don Kessinger then grounded to shortstop, and Phillips beat Leo Cardenas' throw to the plate.

Phillies Call Hurler From San Diego

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies announced Wednesday night they have called up pitcher Larry Loughlin from the San Diego club in the Pacific Coast League to replace left-hander Chris Short, who has been placed on the 21-day disabled list.

The Phillies said Loughlin, also a left-hander, was expected to arrive in time for their game against St. Louis Friday night here.

Short, who won 20 games last year for the Phils, suffered a torn ligament in his left knee Tuesday when he collided with teammate Doug Clemens in a warmup before the Phillies game with the San Francisco Giants.

Sinatra Is Involved in Golf Dispute

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Golf's touring pros are feuding with the Professional Golfers Association again, and this time singer Frank Sinatra is the center of the controversy.

There's renewed locker room talk that the players are threatening to break away from the parent organization and run the $4-million tour on their own.

They've been making this threat, off and on, for several years but heretofore there's always been a reconciliation in time to ward off the drastic step.

A crisis developed last summer, reaching a head during the PGA championship in Akron, Ohio, in a squabble over television monies. The situation was temporarily resolved at the annual convention at Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., in December, and the pros stayed with the PGA.

The latest flare-up centers around whether the PGA should sponsor a $175,000 Frank Sinatra golf tournament at Palm Springs, Calif., two weeks prior to the Bob Hope Classic on the winter tour.

The players' Tournament Committee voted "yes." The PGA Executive Committee said "no."

The players blew their stacks. They held meetings at which they aired their gripes two weeks ago at New Orleans and got together again last week during the Colonial Invitation at Fort Worth, Tex.

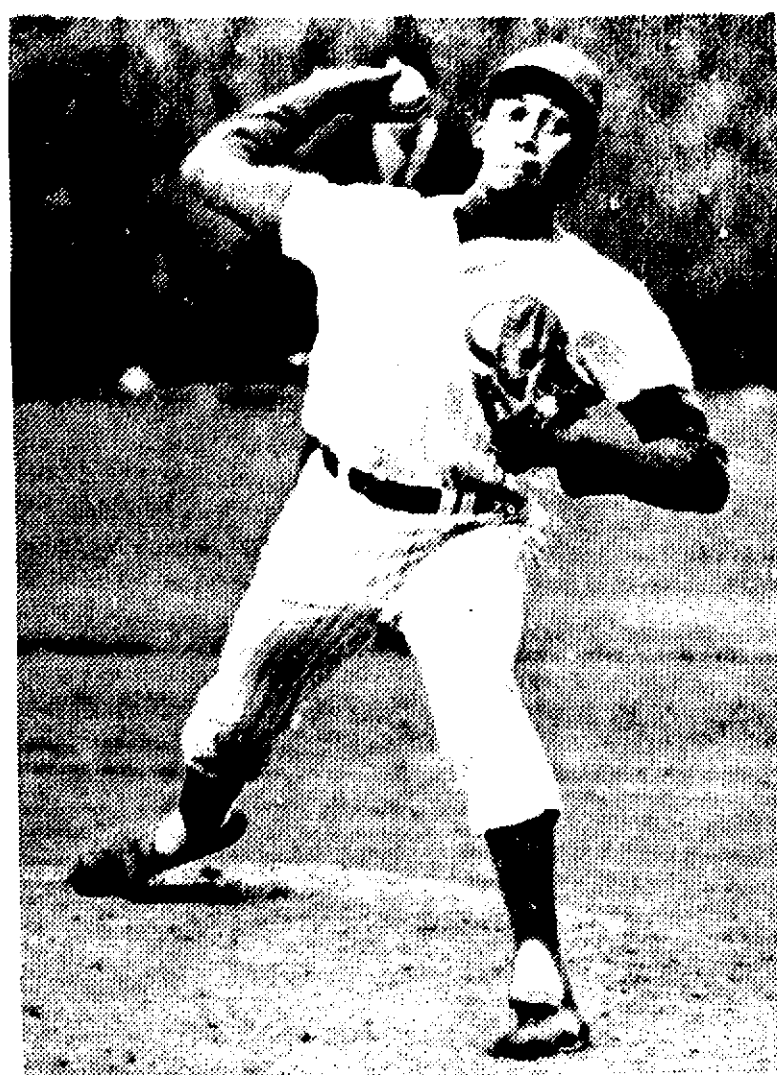

The suggestion was made at these meetings, sources said, that the pros should form their own tour. No concrete action was taken.

Bob Creasey, executive director of the PGA with headquarters in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., acknowledged that PGA officials had held meetings with tournament players at which scheduling problems arose.

"We decided to hold these meetings in strictest confidence," Creasey said. "We don't have another scheduled meeting soon but I feel sure we will get together in the next two weeks and iron everything out."

Max Elbin, president of the PGA and pro at the famed Burning Tree course outside Washington, D.C., said the players' committee had voted in favor of the Sinatra tournament but had been overruled by the PGA officials.

"This was not in any way a slight of Sinatra," Elbin said. "We simply felt that a tournament in the same area so close to Bob Hope's event would damage the Hope tournament."

RARING TO GO is Chicago Cub pitcher Ferguson Jenkins, one of the early, and pleasant, surprises of the 1967 baseball season. Jenkins is becoming the most reliable starter on the Cub's staff.

Oklahoma City Open Underway

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Sparked by the controversy over proposed rules eliminating the croquet style of putting and speeding play, the $66,000 Oklahoma City Open got under way today at Quail Creek Golf and Country Club.

Among the favorites were U.S. Open champ Billy Casper, Doug Sanders and Gary Player.

Still walking in a daze were Bob Shave Jr., Dean Refram and Chuck Rotar, all of whom used the croquet style. The negotiating committee of the U.S. Golf Association and the Royal and Ancient Golf Club at St. Andrew's agreed on the croquet putting ban Wednesday.

Shave, whose croquet putter is named The Last Straw, said he might have to leave the tour if the rule goes into effect in January. He said he went to the croquet style because of a nervous reaction which caused him to "jump" at the ball in a conventional stance.

This tournament is dedicated to the late Tony Lema, who won here last year in what turned out to be his last tournament victory before his death in a plane crash last summer.

2 Inducted Into Racing Hall of Fame

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Mauri Rose, three times winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race, and Anton Hulman, Indianapolis Motor Speedway owner, were inducted into the Auto Racing Hall of Fame here Wednesday.

Rose, driving in relief of Floyd Davis, won the 1941 classic and piloted a front-drive Blue Crown to victories in 1947 and 1948.

Hulman, Terre Haute, Ind., business executive and sportsman, bought the Speedway in 1945, vastly expanded the facilities and increased the purse from pre-World War II totals under $100,000 to last year's record $691,000.

The 33 qualifiers for the 51st running of the 500 May 30 stayed off the Speedway oval Wednesday, tuning up their vehicles for Friday's final practice session.

2 to complete his training for his title defense June 15 against Howard Winstone at Cardiff, Wales. Winstone is the British and European champion.

Reactions Mixed to Golf Code

NEW YORK (AP) — Mixed reactions followed proposals today for a worldwide uniform golf code that, among other things, would outlaw the croquet putting style and limit the number of times a ball may be cleaned on the green.

"It's ridiculous," said Jack Nicklaus, the reigning British Open champion, commenting on the ban on unorthodox putting methods. "Why don't they just let us put the ball down and play it?"

Many of the touring pros at the Oklahoma City open agreed.

"It's the last straw," said Bob Rotar. "I'll probably have to quit the tour."

Chuck Rotar said he was blind in one eye and couldn't use the conventional style of putting.

Some of the touring pros also were expected to object to the rule which would permit the ball to be picked up and cleaned: only once on the green—unless it is in another player's line.

The pros now can pick up and clean the ball on the green before each stroke.

Brigadier Brickman, secretary of the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland, anchored defense of the action on bizarre putting styles and equipment.

"Croquet-style putting is becoming more prevalent," the R & A Executive said. "That's why we are trying to stop the use of them before they get a complete hold."

"It's not a fair stroke. It's more like a shove."

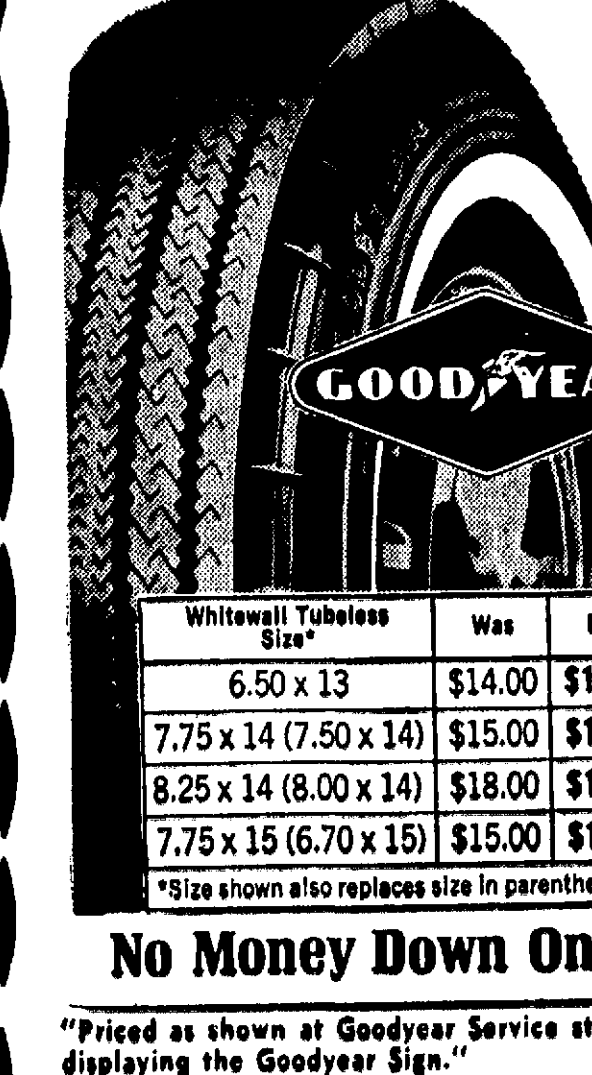

Bob Duden of Portland, Ore., popularized the croquet putting stroke, using a center shafted putter with a perpendicular shaft which he pushes between his legs like a croquet mallet.

Eugene S. Pulliam of Indianapolis was chairman of the U.S. committee, Donald N. V. Smith of the R & A. The changes, if adopted, become effective next Jan. 1. The American PGA has agreed to go along.

The putting regulation would require that a player shall not make a stroke astride, or with either foot touching, the line of the putt or an extension of the line behind the ball. The club shafts would have to be straight and plain in form. If centered on the blade, the shaft would have to be angled.

which caused the attackers to turn and retreat.

Mohammed Hassanein Heikal, chief editor of Al Ahran and a man who often speaks for Nasser, wrote later on: "The simple truth is, no real war took place between Israel and Egypt in Sinai. When the Israeli forces advanced into the Sinai Desert, they knew that the Egyptian army was not in the Sinai Desert and that there were only seven Egyptian battalions there, not exceeding 5,000 soldiers. At the same time the Egyptian army was deployed on the coastal area of the delta between Ismailia and Alexandria to meet the threat of Anglo-French invasion. The decisive battle was planned to take place on the banks of the Suez Canal."

In this account, Egyptians advancing into Suez were ordered to turn back until British-French plans were clearer. This, then, was a successful withdrawal and not a retreat, in Egyptian eyes.

"The very essence of the matter," wrote Heikal, "is that there was no real battle or war in Sinai, simply because there was no Egyptian army in Sinai when the Israelis attacked."

Westerners do not sell Nasser short. He has surprised them in the past with what he could do, and it is possible he could surprise them in the future, perhaps even with a military success.

But, in the current crisis, should Nasser want to back away from an act of war which could blow up the whole area, it is possible for him to claim that the threat of Arab arms surrounding Israel had forced the Israelis to abandon ideas of aggression against "sister Syria." The Arabs, thus claiming another victory, could then simmer down and, once again, wait for the next crisis.

Defector Flew Low to Avoid Radar

By FRANK MURRAY

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A reconstruction of Maj. Richard H. Pearce's flight to Cuba shows he apparently cruised across the Florida Straits at wavetop level to avoid U.S. radar, then broadcast an "any stations" radio message to alert Cuban defenses to his arrival.

A Coast Guard source in Miami said today a radio message was monitored at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, just 13 minutes before the Vietnam hero with a top secret security clearance touched down at Havana's military Libertad Airport southwest of the capital.

An aviation expert said a pilot normally radios for landing instructions about 15 minutes ahead.

"Any station. This is M8546J," Pearce broadcast on a routine aviation frequency when he got within sight of Cuba.

The call was answered by a Coast Guard plane on picket duty over the straits.

"Disregard," said Pearce. That was the last heard from him or his 4-year-old son, Richard Jr., whom he took to Communist Cuba with him.

Havana Radio said Wednesday "the revolutionary government decided to concede asylum to the major of the United States Army, Richard Harwood Pearce, or the facilities appropriate to go to another country, according to his request."

A note over Pearce's signature in the Communist party newspaper "Granma" said, "I have decided to part from my country in the company of my son, for reasons of conscience."

Strict silence was maintained on the messages until today.

docked there.

The semi-official Cairo newspaper Al Ahran reported that Egyptian authorities in the gulf stopped and searched two German ships Wednesday and allowed them to continue after learning their destination was Aqaba, Jordan's port within sight of Elath.

A seven-ship amphibious force of the U.S. 6th Fleet left Naples today with 2,000 Marines aboard while the fleet's flagship, the guided missile cruiser Little Rock, left its base at Gaeta, 36 miles north of Naples.

U.S. Navy officers at Naples said both sailings were part of regular operations scheduled before the current threat of fighting in the Middle East. They would not say where in the Mediterranean the ships were going or whether they would join a 6th Fleet carrier task force in eastern waters.

At U.N. headquarters in New York, the Security Council met to discuss the Middle East. But the only developments were U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg's urging for a big-power peace effort and a Soviet demand for withdrawal of U.S. and British warships from the Mediterranean.

Al Ahran, which often speaks for Nasser, said Egypt is prepared to facilitate Thant's mission "in all aspects that do not jeopardize the rights of sovereignty and security of the Arabs." It did not elaborate.

Reliable sources said Thant proposed an armistice commission under U.N. supervision similar to the one dissolved in 1956 after Israel refused to participate.

Egyptian sources said Egypt would be willing to endorse establishment of such a commission.

Denies Negroes Are Miffed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Johnny Lange, Negro coordinator for the Republican Party, said Wednesday he knew the majority of 23 Negroes mentioned in a statement Tuesday "resent the fact that their names were used in connection" in an attack on Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

Rev. P. H. Russell and Rev. H. D. Brookins, two of the 23 Negroes mentioned in a statement by the Leadership Round Table, agreed with Lange.

The statement by the Negro group said Rockefeller's appeal to Negroes was waning and that his behavior toward Negroes was "little short of insulting."

Lange said the group is not representative of the Negro community.

"We did not know anything about this disagreement with the governor," Revs. Russell and Brookins said in a joint statement. "We are two of the people whose names were on this communication. We did not know that they were dissatisfied with the present administration."

Must Be Licensed to Kill Snails

NEUCHATEL, Switzerland (AP) — A license is now required to catch and kill snails in the Swiss state of Neuchatel.

Authorities introduced licenses to prevent the extermination of the slow-moving animal, a favorite with local gourmets.

Canada Set for Visit of Johnson

OTTAWA (AP) — Officials in Ottawa and Montreal worked frantically through the night to prepare for a whirlwind visit today by President Johnson.

Expo 67, the Montreal World's Fair, announced the President would visit the fair this morning but the visit was "subject to change" if developments in the Middle East or Vietnam required Johnson to remain in Washington.

Informants in Ottawa said Johnson had suggested a half-day tour of the fair followed by a talk with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson on the Middle East crisis. Today is U.S. Day at the fair.

The White House and the U.S. Embassy here said they had no information on such a trip. But Canadian sources said Johnson was delaying his announcement until the last minute because the tense international situation might force him to cancel the visit.

The informants said the President would confer privately with Pearson for three or four hours at the prime minister's secluded summer residence at Harrington Lake, about 20 miles north of Ottawa.

It was learned that U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk telephoned Pearson twice Wednesday to discuss plans for Johnson's trip. Rusk was reported not planning to come to Canada himself.

Spokesmen in Ottawa said tentative plans called for the President to fly to Montreal, Harrington Lake, Ottawa International Airport and back to Washington within about 12 hours.

Johnson and the Canadian leader last met at Campobello Island, N.B., last Aug. 21 when they officiated at the opening of an international park at the old summer residence of President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

TOP MIG KILLER so far in the Vietnam air war is Col. Robin Olds, 44, of Washington, D.C., who at last count had downed four enemy planes. The husband of actress Ella Raines, he also had 24 confirmed "kills" on enemy planes in World War II.

HOUSE GIVES

Mrs. Green in a successful fight to eliminate control by the Office of Education over all funds to strengthen state education departments. The administration bill earmarked 15 per cent of the money for programs designated by the federal government.

Also adopted was an amendment by Rep. Sam Gibbons, D-Fla., that would increase the share of the total federal allocation going to Southern states. Unless Johnson puts more money into the program, it would mean cutbacks in all other states.

Earlier the House approved amendments that could hamper the Office of Education's effort to enforce school desegregation guidelines.

As it went to the Senate by a vote of 294 to 122, the bill would authorize $3.5 billion for aid to elementary and secondary schools for fiscal 1968-69. Under previous legislation the school aid is assured through June 30, 1968.

Left intact was the major provision, putting federal funds into school districts for special programs to aid children from low-income families. It gets 80 per cent of the funds.

That was the main target of an amendment by Rep. Albert H. Rees, R-Minn., which was defeated 197 to 168.

At one point the Democratic House leadership lost complete control of the situation and it appeared the entire bill would be lost. Twice the leaders tried to adjourn and put off any further action but Republicans and Southern Democrats blocked them.

Republicans made a final effort to kill the bill by sending it back to committee, but lost 236 to 189. On the vote, 134 Republicans and 46 Democrats voted for recommitment. Voting to keep the bill alive were 190 Democrats and 46 Republicans.

On final passage, 195 Democrats and 99 Republicans voted for it, and 80 Republicans and 42 Democrats against it. Quite supported the bill but the entire top GOP leadership voted against it.

Democrats relied heavily on the church-state issue to defeat Quile's amendment, which would have provided lumpsum grants to the states to carry out education programs of their own design.

Opponents said it would wreck the delicate compromise that led to enactment of the 1965 act, which makes funds available for both public and parochial school children in poverty areas.

Difficult Banning The Miniskirt

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican daily newspaper says parish priests may have difficulty banning miniskirts from church since actress Claudia Cardinale wore one for a papal audience.

Miss Cardinale wore a black, high-neck, knee-top dress at a House leadership lost complete control of the situation and it appeared the entire bill would

Can't Determine Age

There is no way known by which scientists can determine the exact age of a wild mammal, but they can gather a general idea from the wear of its teeth, provided they know the average life span of the species.

usually in the form of a coin

are not money. Their pur-

DOCTOR'S MAILBAG

Just Learning to Relax Can Often Cure Insomnia

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—I have taken a sleeping pill two or three times a week for the past year. When I read that sleeping pills are habit-forming, it worried me.
How can you get relief after not sleeping for two nights in a row?

A—All sleeping pills are not habit-forming. Those that contain barbiturates are, but they can be purchased only on a doctor's prescription. Some people worry so much about their insomnia they can't sleep. In essence the ability to fall asleep readily depends on the ability to relax completely. For many persons this is very difficult but with practice and the proper approach it can be accomplished.
The technique is well-described in "You Can Learn to Relax", a book by S. W.
Guthrie. A limited number of copies (paper back) are available at Wilshire Book Company (8721 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood 46, Calif.).

Q—We keep our bedroom cold, but sleep under an electric blanket. Some friends say this is not good for us.
We have done this for 10 years without any ill effects that we know of. What do you think?

A—You have learned from your own experience that what you are doing is not harmful. The key to the situation is a good rheostat that will allow you to adjust the temperature of the blanket to your individual need.

Q—How low must one's blood pressure be to cause concern? What would cause the blood pressure to be too low? What can be done to raise it?

A—Although an upper reading (systolic) below 100 is considered abnormally low, this does not in itself indicate poor health. In shock, the blood pressure falls below 95.
This is considered alarming
but it is a late sign of shock.
The condition is best diagnosed by other means.

Abnormally low blood pressure is seen in Addison's disease (adrenal deficiency), nervous vomiting, advanced tuberculosis, ulcerative colitis and other chronic debilitating diseases. There are drugs that will raise the blood pressure of persons who are in shock, which is an emergency

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The bald eagle, national emblem of this country, is one of many birds in the United States seriously threatened with extinction, says The World Almanac.
The encroachments of civilization have often ruined the eagle's nesting grounds and hunters have sometimes killed the majestic bird, thinking it was only a hawk.

The Duke of Windsor Tells About 30 Yrs.

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
NEW YORK (AP) — In the sun-bathed room overlooking Manhattan, the Duke of Windsor looked back on an extraordinary life.
"These have been 30 wonderful years for me, and it has been the same for the duchess," he smiled, and he placed his half-lensed tortoise shellglasses on the glossy cocktail table before him.
"Life has never been dull. Not a moment."

Everything shone in the sitting room of the Windsors' home away from home high in the Waldorf Towers; highly polished table tops; mirrors; the pair of green porcelain lions flanking a mantel at one end of the large French-style room; vases everywhere filled with red, pink and white blossoms; and the beaming duke himself.

Occasionally, he drew on a pipe. Its aroma mingled with the perfume of the flowers.

The duke had apologies from his duchess, the woman for whom he had given up his throne.

"She is not feeling well this afternoon. We have had a bit too much social life lately, I'm afraid."

Along with numerous charity benefits where their appearance always automatically guarantees success, have been some private parties in advance of their 30th wedding anniversary June 3.

Still to be crossed off their busy social calendar is the American premiere of the film "A King's Story" Wednesday night. This event will benefit the New York Hospital for Special Surgery, the Windsors' favorite charity.

On May 31, the couple will sail for England aboard the liner United States to add a happy chapter to their love story. For the first time since his abdication and their marriage the duchess has been invited to accompany the duke at a royal family function.

They will attend the private unveiling by Queen Elizabeth of a plaque in memory of Queen Mary, the duke's mother. The event will occur June 7 outside Marlborough House where Queen Mary lived.

However, Queen Elizabeth and the duchess have met before, at a hospital following the duke's eye operation two years ago.

At any rate, they will be going home to a new kind of England, a swinging England that gave the world the miniskirt and the Beatles.

"Well, we've seen the uprising of skirts. Up and up they've gone. But they'll be down. They'll have to be."

The duke's blue eyes twinkled.

Countdown for Class

BRISTOL, Tenn. (AP) — The countdown has started for Mrs. Betty Combs' sixth-grade class at Bristol's Chiquapi elementary school.

"R-Day" — "record day" — is Saturday, June 3, when the school year ends.

Miss Combs' 22 pupils hope to finish the entire session of 175 school days without a single class member having missed so much as one day of school.

A few days ago one of the sixth-graders fell and suffered a severe hand cut after school hours. The children held their breaths — but he showed up next day with a big bandage on his hand.

Valuable Statue Is Stolen

MONTREAL (AP) — The most valuable statue in the Paris display at Expo 67 — a 6-inch statue of a man by Swiss sculptor Alberto Giacometti — has been stolen, an Expo official said today.

The statue, Petit Bonhomme, was insured for $3,000. The official said it was taken sometime between 9:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Monday.

It stood among several larger pieces in the Paris display in the French Pavilion.

This is the finest sedan made in America

This is the Continental sedan. It is the only sedan we make.

Some other makers of luxury cars offer a half dozen four door models. And we admit it is a near trick juggling features from one car to the next, and thinking up a half dozen fancy names.

But we are not prone to neat tricks or fancy names. That is not the Continental way.

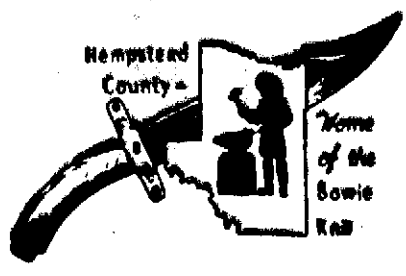

We take all the good things we can put in a sedan, and we put them all in one sedan.

We call it the Continental sedan. Many call it the finest sedan made in America.

Wisconsin's 'Tax' on Oleo a Tariff Against South

For seventy-two years Wisconsin has levied a prohibitive tax against oleomargarine and forbidden the sale of colored oleo entirely. On Wednesday Gov. Warren Knowles signed into law a bill lifting the punitive tax against oleo.

The 15c-a-pound levy has been cut to 5 1/2 c, to run for five years principally to finance a dairy research building at the University of Arkansas.

Gov. Knowles says of the lifting of the yellow oleomargarine tax and the tax reduction: "This is a milestone in Wisconsin history. Now the deed has been done."

His exultation will draw no words of gratitude from the South, from whose cotton oil oleomargarine is made. Rather, his statement sounds like the death-bed repentance of a condemned lawbreaker.

For the State of Wisconsin has indeed been a federal lawbreaker ever since its enactment of anti-oleomargarine legislation in 1895. The Constitution of the United States specifically forbids any state from levying a tariff against the goods of a sister state. But Wisconsin has defied the law for two generations, and will defy it by continuing the reduced tax on oleo for another five years.

No matter how Wisconsin "window-dresses" its oleo tax it is in fact a tariff—a punitive action to keep out competing goods from a sister state in order to protect its home product, butter.

You don't have to be a lawyer to understand why the founders of this republic prohibited such tariffs between the states. If practiced generally an intra-state tariff system would have destroyed the federation of states before it could possibly become a stable and secure national government.

The blackest mark against the United States Supreme Court is that for two generations it has failed to strike down Wisconsin's arrogant and lawbreaking oleo law.

But Wisconsin is in the North, not the South. Had it been a Southern "law" the prejudiced gentry on the high bench would have smashed it with words of thunder and the speed of lightning.

Prisoner Dies From Wounds

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Paul William Moore, of Fort Mellon, Canada, who was wounded Saturday morning after escaping from Tucker Prison Farm, died Wednesday in a Little Rock hospital.

Moore, 23, was wounded in the head and suffered considerable brain damage according to a hospital spokesman.

Moore, Jackie Lee Wood, 25, and Clarence Dwight Haynes, 25, escaped from Tucker Thursday night. Authorities cornered the trio near Pine Bluff Saturday morning.

Wood was slightly wounded and taken back to Tucker. Haynes was not wounded. Moore was sentenced to five years from Craighead County for forgery.

To Initiate Nursing Plan

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Carey V. Stabler, Little Rock University President, and Sister Thomas de Sales, administrator at St. Vincent Infirmary, will jointly initiate an associate degree program in nursing, beginning in the fall of 1968.

Graduates will be eligible to take the state examination for licensing as a registered nurse. The program will require one summer session and four semesters for completion.

LRU will assume control and financial responsibility of the program with St. Vincent underwriting a part of the cost.

St. Vincent will serve as the clinical laboratory for the students and LRU will handle the academic training.

Students in the nursing program will pay the same tuition and fees as other students and will be required to meet the same entrance requirements as regular students at LRU.

House Gives Approval to School Bill

By JOHN W. BECKLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed most of President Johnson's school aid bill early today after a bitter, marathon debate but stripped from the U.S. Office of Education one of its prized programs.

The result of the 14-hour session was mixed for the administration.

It won the big fight, defeating a determined Republican effort to turn the entire program over to the states, but suffered losses some members said seriously damaged federal efforts to aid education.

The main setback came on an amendment by Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., to give the states control of a program designed to help local communities set up experimental programs outside the regular school system.

John W. Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare, warned the House such a step would diminish the effectiveness of the program and raise the specter of a church-state controversy that might end it in some states.

Republicans and Southern Democrats voted solidly for the amendment, which was adopted 230 to 185.

Man Charged in Shooting of Officer

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — Lee Wilson about 65, of Osceola, was charged Wednesday with first-degree murder in connection with the shooting death of Gordon McFall, 39, a Blytheville auxiliary policeman.

McFall was killed and eight other persons wounded by Wilson in a gun battle which lasted about four hours Tuesday night.

McFall was shot near a house about 30 yards from the two-room house from which Wilson held off about 15 state troopers and Blytheville Osceola and Mississippi County officers.

Wilson finally ran from the house under a heavy barrage of gunfire and tear gas. He was firing a shotgun as he ran. Osceola Police Chief Ray Rigby said Wilson was brought down by two or three shots.

Wilson was hospitalized at Memphis in good condition.

The police chief said the shooting began when officers answered a complaint that Wilson was threatening neighbors with a gun.

There Are Many Ways to Tell If You Are Young, Here Are Some

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Dear Pavement Plato: My wife tells me I am an old fogey. Since I am only 24 years old, can she be right? How can a person tell whether or not he is still young, anyway?

"Perplexed": Dear "Perplexed": It isn't always easy to classify people as young, middle-aged or old. For one's attitude toward life determines this almost as much as does the calendar.

But you are probably still young if—Sigmund Freud and his theories seem old-fashioned to you. Hearing Elvis Presley play the guitar gives you a nostalgic feeling.

In buying your clothing you can't decide whether to go to the men's store or the university shop, where the sizes are a bit snugger but the prices are cheaper.

You hate to wear a pair of tennis shoes in public unless they are frayed and dirty.

State Is Using Road Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Highway Department said Wednesday that according to figures of the federal Department of Transportation only five states outrank Arkansas in the percentage of highway mileage completed or under construction.

The report said only Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New York and Oregon have a larger percentage than Arkansas.

The Highway Department said the figures also indicate Arkansas is below the national average in the percentage of mileage already completed. Arkansas is ahead of most states in the amount of work under construction but is behind in the mileage open.

Faubus Says Lybrand Will Help Party

HUNTSVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Former Gov. Orval Faubus said Wednesday he was sure J. P. Lybrand Jr. of Pine Bluff, the Democratic Party's new executive secretary, would work with ALL Democrats and "pull together to build party strength."

Faubus said he did not have any reservations about the selection of Lybrand Tuesday by the state Democratic Committee.

The former governor was questioned about a statement by I. S. McClinton, president of the Arkansas Democratic (Negro) Voters Association. McClinton had said he felt the Democrats could recapture the Negro vote in 1968 if they started wooing Negroes now.

"I think that if Negroes are treated as constituents and responsible members of the Democratic Party and take part in its deliberations they will vote Democratic," Faubus said.

Commission Role Minor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arml Taylor of Clarksville, chairman of the state Highway Commission, said Wednesday the commission's role in the preliminary study of turnpike corridors was minor and that "anything we do will be at the request of the Turnpike Authority."

Taylor made the comments after it was revealed that the Highway Commission and the Turnpike Authority have not signed an agreement advancing the authority $100,000 for preliminary study of possible turnpike corridors.

The authority decided to ask the commission for the money at its first meeting.

337 Killed in Vietnam in a Week

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command announced today that a record number of 337 Americans were killed in action last week, mainly in fighting around the demilitarized zone which has now been emptied of allied troops following its invasion a week ago.

The American Command said the last U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese units have now left the southern half of the zone, taking with them a wealth of captured booty plus thousands of civilian refugees.

Among the captured items were 180 North Vietnamese masks seized Wednesday along with 1,000 mortar shells.

The casualty report listed 337 Americans killed, 2,282 wounded and 31 missing during last week. In addition, 241 South Vietnamese troops were reported killed and other allies, mainly the South Koreans, reported 50 dead. Communist losses were 2,464 killed. All this made the week by far the bloodiest of the war.

The week's casualties brought U.S. losses for the war to 10,253 dead and 61,425 wounded by unofficial tabulation. The previous peak figure for killed in action in one week was 274, reached twice this year. The toll reflects the mounting intensity of the war and the continued growth of American and allied forces involved.

The joint Marine and South Vietnamese invasion of the southern half of the demilitarized zone, begun last Thursday, had been precipitated by increased casualties caused by Red guns and mortars firing from the buffer area. The week's casualty figure included the first three days of the invasion — when allied casualties were severe.

With the announcement that U.S. and South Vietnamese forces were again clear of the zone, the United States appeared to be trying to restore it to something of the buffer status it was supposed to have under the Geneva agreements of 1954 which divided Vietnam and set up the zone. Whether the North Vietnamese would refrain from again infiltrating the cleared-out area appeared questionable.

More heavy air raids over North Vietnam and occasionally sharp ground fighting in South Vietnam were reported by the U.S. Command today.

Stobaugh Can Have Job, Not in Conway Co.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Carl Stobaugh, former Conway County welfare director, can have a job Cleburne County director, Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock said Wednesday.

Blaylock said a vacancy exists in Cleburne County. Stobaugh was dismissed as Conway County director but was recently reinstated upon the recommendation of the state Merit System Council.

Blaylock said in a letter to Stobaugh that he would not be employed in Conway County as long as he was commissioner or until it is ordered by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller. Stobaugh is a nephew of Conway County Sheriff Marlin Hawkins.

Former Welfare Commissioner A. J. Moss asked Stobaugh to resign because he said his jobs as welfare director and deputy sheriff conflicted. Stobaugh had told Blaylock he would resign as a deputy sheriff in Conway County if he is rehired.

Blaylock said Stobaugh had no right to accuse welfare clients of fraud which Stobaugh allegedly did on at least two occasions and that he did not notify the commissioner's office that these clients owed over $10,000.

The welfare department produced two persons at the hearing before the merit council who said Stobaugh had written them letters telling them that their welfare checks were being stopped and that they owed the state money for previous overpayments.

Taylor Named Commissioner

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — D. Fred Taylor, 65, of Osceola, was appointed Wednesday by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller to fill a vacancy on the State Police Commission.

The vacancy occurred when Carl Burger of Bentonville resigned recently. Burger's term continues until Jan. 14, 1973. Taylor is on the state, district and executive committees of the Republican Party.

Arab Leaders Went Too Far Out on the Limb to Climb Back

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

There is a way out of the current ominous-looking Middle East crisis, if leaders are willing to take it.

Arab leaders in particular in the past have been able to rationalize, when the chips were down, and find face-saving ways out of dangerous situations into which, from time to time, they seemed to back themselves.

What appears to have happened in this crisis is that the leaders went so far out on limbs that it is difficult to climb back.

What may be needed is some plausible excuse to do so — a claim of, at least, a moral victory.

The Arabs, unready in past wars and crises to carry through successfully, have managed to console themselves with claims of victory. Top leaders do not delude themselves, but at lower levels Arabs are able to persuade themselves that their losses were not really losses, their defeats not really defeats.

After the Palestine war with the Israelis, one could hear often in the Middle East an Arab analysis of what had happened. It was really an Arab victory because the combined force of Arab arms had prevented the Zionists from conquering all the way from the Mediterranean to the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers. Most Arab nationalists hotly contend that this is an old Zionist dream that Israel still plots to achieve.

After the 1956 imbroglio which followed nationalization of the Suez Canal by President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt and the subsequent French-British-Israeli attack on the Egyptians, Arab voices could be heard again claiming victory. The Israelis had driven all the way across the Sinai Desert to the canal against collapsing Egyptian resistance and had captured huge stores of materiel. What ended that conflict was the combined pressure of the United States and the Soviet Union, forcing the attackers to withdraw.

The way Arabs — some in high places — told the story, it was the frightening prospect of the wise and wily Nasser in Cairo with his protecting troops

Experts Say Israel Could Lick Arabs

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. military experts believe Israel's armed forces, although outnumbered, could defeat the combined Arab armies if the big powers stay out.

These experts give the Israel- is an edge over the Arabs because of what was described as superior training and better equipment maintenance.

Israel's 300,000 soldiers and airmen stack up against some 400,000 armed men in the Arab states surrounding her, latest estimates indicate.

However, while Israel was said to be able to mobilize and deploy her 300,000 men in a matter of days, the Arab armies are believed able to muster much less than their full strength.

Military specialists expect any open war would pit Israel against four Arab countries primarily — Egypt, Jordan, Syria and Lebanon, all of which immediately border on Israel.

Although Iraq and Saudi Arabia are also Arab states, they are not immediately bordering on Israel.

U Thant Has Peace Formula From Nasser

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant cut short his peace mission to Egypt today and flew home to report to the U.N. Security Council on his talks with President Gamal Abdel Nasser on the Middle East crisis.

"I have met President Nasser and I consider my mission completed," he said. "I do not intend to make any statement on my talks here until I return to the Security Council in New York."

Aides said he planned to report to the council Saturday or Sunday. Informants said he carried a special message to the council from Nasser.

They added it was unlikely Thant was carrying a new peace formula.

Nasser, sources said, explained to Thant in detail the Egyptian position in the crisis, and Thant is expected to spell this out in his report to the Security Council and to request the Council's opinion on what the next U.N. move should be in the effort to head off war between the Arab states and Israel.

Nasser is reported to have assured Thant of his willingness to cooperate with the United Nations, but at the same time stressed his determination to keep Egyptian forces in Gaza and in Sinai and to maintain what he calls Egypt's legal rights to bar the Gulf of Aqaba to Israeli shipping.

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser was reported sympathetic today to U.N. Secretary-General U. Thant's peace proposals, including revival of the Egyptian-Israeli Armistice Commission to put a brake on the mounting crisis in the Middle East.

In other peace efforts, the United States pressed the Soviet Union, to join America, France and Britain both within and outside the United Nations to try to prevent war in the Middle East. Britain asked the Soviets, who are backing the Arabs, to use their influence to restrain Egypt and Syria.

President Johnson was reported planning to fly to Canada today to discuss the crisis with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson.

A major stumbling block to easing tensions was Egypt's proclaimed blockade of Israeli shipping to and from its southern port of Elath, on the Gulf of Aqaba, its link to East Africa, Asia and Iran oil.

Despite Nasser's reported willingness to "facilitate" Thant's peace mission, it was doubted that he would lift the blockade, which Israel has said it would not permit.

However, there was no word of any Israeli attempt to challenge the Egyptian guns and patrol boats guarding the Strait of Tiran, the entrance from the Red Sea into the gulf. No Israeli ships have been reported en route to the gulf, and an official at Elath said no ships were

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. H. Allan Dishongh of Little Rock Wednesday said he felt a contract between the state Penitentiary Board and the Jacob Hartz Seed Co. of Stuttgart was given to "pay off a campaign debt."

Dishongh said he could not "help but believe that this contract, given without bids or adequate legal advice was politically motivated."

The contract was ruled illegal by the attorney general's office. The Hartz Co. would have handled the rice and soybean crops at Tucker Prison Farm under the contract.

He said the firm was insured against the loss of the crop and was to be indemnified in the amount of $15,000 if the crop had been lost for any reason. He said the contract contained many inequities.

Nasser Knows Not What He Does

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst
(AP) —
There's enough in Gamal Abdel Nasser's background to scare anyone who tangles with him because, after his first big venture, how could anyone, including Nasser, be sure he knows what he's doing?

It's one reason why this Egyptian president's antics in the Middle East are unpredictable. Nasser was 34 and a major in 1952 when he and a small group of other Egyptian army officers, fed up with the decadence of King Farouk, decided to throw him out and suddenly did it.

They had pulled off a bloodless revolution and then didn't know what to do with it. Nasser and the others hadn't planned beyond getting rid of Farouk. After that happened, they thought, others would come along with ideas for running and reforming Egypt. Nasser explained their dilemma in a book he wrote later, "The Philosophy of Revolution."

"I thought we were only the pioneers and commandos," he said, "that we would be in the front for a few hours and that we would soon be followed by the solid masses marching to the goal." But they weren't.

The officers set up a Revolutionary Council, headed by Brig. Gen. Mohammed Naguib. The badly needed reforms were begun, but slowly. And then suddenly Naguib was thrown out and Nasser replaced him.

He has been in charge ever since, first as premier, then as president. Two years after taking over he got into another jam, of his own making, although he came out of it smelling like a rose, no thanks to his own wit.

He wanted to build a colossal project, the Aswan Dam, to help Egyptian farming. He needed a lot of help, asked the United States for it, got a promise of it, and tried to play both ends against the middle.

He asked the Soviet Union to get in on the deal. He got very friendly with the Red Chinese. And he proclaimed himself a neutralist. By this time he had irritated the Eisenhower administration so much that the promised help to him was canceled.

Not long afterwards he seized the Suez Canal. This irritated the British, French and Israelis so much they invaded Egypt. Nasser's army, hardly more than a Cooey's army, was no match for the invaders.

If it had kept up, Nasser was finished. But the United Nations intervened—backed for a change by the United States and the Soviet Union together—and demanded the invaders clear out. They did.

Nasser has been running the canal ever since and, to practically everyone's surprise, successfully. But Egypt under Nasser is a long way from the Promised Land. He has had to get help from many directions. Meanwhile, he has lost caste among the other leaders of the Arab world. If he could get into another rumput with Israel, and somehow come out of it intact, he figured to regain some of his lost prestige.

At least this is one of the guesses for his belligerence now. But it's no more than a guess since he may not have done any more planning than with Farouk.

If he had just rattled a saber, rolled a drum, and mobilized as

West Wants to Keep M. E. From the Reds

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP) — Since 1948 successive U.S. presidents have followed two basic, parallel policies toward the Middle East — once again a crisis area. Since the end of World War II the United States has sought to prevent the area from falling under Communist control.

And since the establishment of Israel in 1948, the United States has aimed at preserving Israel's existence and maintaining peace between it and its Arab neighbors.

In the present Israeli-Arab crisis, State Department officials consider two policy documents issued in the 1950s to be of fundamental importance.

Principles of the so-called tripartite declaration with Britain and France issued in 1950 have been reaffirmed by the State Department within the past week.

Its major provisions discussing the Middle East say: "The three governments take this opportunity of declaring their deep interest in and their desire to promote the establishment and maintenance of peace and stability in the area and their unalterable opposition to the use of force or threat of force between any of the states in that area."

"The three governments, should they find that any of these states was preparing to violate frontiers or armistice lines, would, consistently with their obligations as members of the United Nations, immediately take action, both within and outside the United Nations, to prevent such violations."

The other document cited currently was a memorandum given to Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on Feb. 11, 1957. Earlier the United States had acted with other U.N. nations to stop an attack by Israel, Britain and France on Egypt following its seizure of the Suez Canal.

Israel sought support for its use of the Gulf of Aqaba for shipping access to its southern port, Elath. Egypt now has challenged that access by declaring the gulf entrance closed to Israeli and some other shipping.

Case of Accused Nazi in Brazil

BRASILIA (AP) — The case of accused Nazi war criminal Franz Stangl rested today with Brazil's Supreme Court which must decide whether to honor extradition request by Austria and West Germany, both ruled legal by Brazil's prosecutor general Wednesday.

Stangl was arrested last February in Sao Paulo on a tip from the Jewish Documentation Center in Vienna. He commanded the Sobibor and Treblinka extermination camps.

Word of his arrest brought extradition requests from Austria, West Germany and Communist Poland.

Prosecutor Haroldo Valadao rejected the Polish request saying Warsaw had failed to show any judicial action in the case. He said this invalidated it under Brazil's 20-year statute of limitations.

NEW YORK (AP) — Peter Croyan, 43, is an Irishman with a long memory and — now — a quieted conscience.

His letter air-mailed from Dublin, Ireland, arrived on the desk of city finance administrator Roy M. Goodman Wednesday.

He enclosed $5 to "pay for the damage."

Thanking him, Goodman wrote, "It is always pleasant to receive something green from Eire."

Catholic Office Gets New Name

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—The chancery office of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Rochester has been renamed "The Pastoral Office" in a move Bishop Fulton J. Sheen says reflects the "person-oriented atmosphere" called for by the late Pope John XXIII.

"The Pastoral Office," Bishop Sheen said Monday, will express the "charity, openness and the openness of the priesthood and clergy."

"The word 'chancery' " the bishop stated, "often has been associated with bureaucracy, officialdom and curial procedure."

Denmark Radio Station Would Help Viet Cong

COPENHAGEN (AP)—An underground radio station went on the air Monday night calling for donations to the Viet Cong and demonstrations against the visit of U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk to Denmark June 15-16.

The station denounced Denmark's Socialist government as "a faithful lackey of the capitalists."

The station is believed to be the first political one in Copenhagen in peacetime. Danish law forbids all radio stations except the government's.

Sources said the station is run by extreme leftists who say they will soon have a transmitter strong enough to reach all of Denmark. The broadcast Monday could be picked up only in Copenhagen.

MCSCOW (AP)—A Soviet geologist says the coastline of Antarctica is inaccurately represented on present maps because they include permanent ice masses that extend below sea level.

Prof. Nikolai Grushinsky wrote in the magazine Earth and Universe that the true coastline is at some points 124 miles closer to the South Pole.

Ice covers almost all of Antarctica, with its depth in places reaching 8,202 feet. At some points the coastal ice extends below sea level before meeting the rock.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bittel

WHAT IS A GIRL FRIEND

Dear Helen: In answer to "What is a Girlfriend," here's a boy's view of a girl:

A girl is soft, cuddly and smooth, but beats you in tennis, golf and other sports.

Girls are nice one minute and impossible the next. One day they shake your hand, the next they stab you in the back. They dress like they want every boy in the world to notice them, and then go out with only a few.

They wear short, short skirts and low cut blouses, which say, "Here I am!" and then put up a "hands off" policy. They show off their legs and they sure know it!

They throw everything into a kiss, then slap your face... but they're still hoping you'll ask them out again.

... And you know something? I SURE WILL! — GIRL HAPPY

Dear Helen: I want to thank "Don," the boy who wrote, "The two things boys dislike most in girls are smoking and swearing or vulgar talk."

It seems that so many in my high school smoke and drink some. I've been tempted lately to be "one of the crowd." Then I read Don's letter and now when someone offers me a cigarette it gives me the courage to say, "No thank you."

I must add I haven't lost any status for my no-smoking, no-drinking, no-loose-talk stand. I'm in a good crowd and have wonderful friends. — GRATEFUL TO DON

Dear Helen: Don sure said the truth. Most boys hate to see girls smoke. It makes them look tough and cheap especially if they smoke on the street. If a girl smokes, takes a drink, and also has a big mouth, or even shows she enjoys dirty jokes, she's asking for passes. She gets known as a "dog." — STEVE

Dear Steve: It works both ways. Fellows who like lady-type girls had better bone up on being gentlemen or they'll lose out with the ones they prefer. — H.

Dear Helen: A lot of kids give as their excuse, "You're expected to smoke, drink, etc., or the crowd won't accept you." Hogwash!

I have never once been pressured, or even asked twice to take a cigarette or a drink. Nobody tries to convert anybody in our group. Some do, some don't, and the attitude is it's our own decision. My attitude is, "Why start something you might get hung upon?" Especially since without them I'm — HAVING A BALL

Dear Helen: We have a friend who really believes everything her Ouija (pronounced wee-gee) board says. She is scared to death of it and carries a cross around to protect her from it. I know it tells lies as it said I was going to lose my boyfriend, and on a day I stayed home from school it said I wasn't really sick. But it told her how old her grandmother was and some other things that were true. Do you think there's anything supernatural about this kind of fortune telling? — CON-FUSED P

Dear Con: Of course there's nothing supernatural about a Ouija Board. It "works" through subconscious hand-pressure, and it "tells the truth" because someone already knows, or is a good guesser.

When a girl starts taking Ouija seriously, it's time to burn the board for firewood. — H.

Crisis Sees U.S., Russia Parleying

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and the Soviet Union have lined up on opposite sides of the Israeli-Arab crisis, but U. S. leaders hope rapid diplomatic action will avert a great power confrontation in the Middle East.

President Johnson made the U.S. stand clear in a statement Tuesday in which he declared American support for Israel's demand of free passage for its ships through the Gulf of Agaba, threatened with blockade by Egypt.

The President spoke about two hours after learning the Soviet government had accused Israel of past "aggression" against the Arabs and had declared any new aggression would be opposed by "the Soviet Union and all peace loving states."

Johnson called strongly for the United Nations action to bring the situation under control. Authorities here noted the Soviet statement also said "the maintenance of peace and security in the area directly adjacent to the Soviet borders meets the vital interest of the Soviet peoples."

Shortly after Johnson's statement, the U.N. Security Council was summoned to a meeting late this morning. This country had backed such a meeting, and Senate supporters and critics of Johnson's Vietnam policies unified in proposing Security Council action to avert a Middle East war.

Johnson sharply criticized the recent action of U.N. Secretary-General U Thant — though he did not name U Thant — in removing the U.N. Emergency force from Egyptian-Israeli border areas.

Johnson Lays Blame on U Thant

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nothing better illustrates the gravity of the Middle East crisis than President Johnson's unprecedented attack on U Thant, secretary-general of the United Nations.

U Thant, not one of the strong men in that job, is a gentle Burmese whose prompt obedience to the demand of Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser has intensified the crisis and was the reason for Johnson's attack.

The two former secretaries-general — Trygve Lie of Norway and Dag Hammarskjöld of Sweden — operated from strength, but U Thant, who succeeded the Swede in 1961, seems to rely mostly on indignation.

He has repeatedly been indignant, for instance, at the American role in Vietnam and he apparently had such a distaste for the mixed-up condition of the nations that when his term ended last year he wanted to retire.

But the U.N. members, including this country and the Soviet Union, voted to reappoint him. This was done probably more to keep peace in the United Nations than to keep U Thant. He was about the only one the United States and Moscow could agree on.

Ever since the Israeli-Egyptian war of 1956, brief though it was, the United Nations has had a peacekeeping force on the Egyptian side of the Israeli-Egyptian frontier. Israel wouldn't permit the U.N. troops inside its territory.

Nasser let them patrol the border — about 3,400 men from eight nations — so long and Israeli-Egyptian relations were fairly quiet. But when both sides began to mobilize for war Nasser demanded they be removed.

And U Thant quickly removed them. He did this on his own without approval by the U.N. General Assembly or the Security Council. The crisis got worse, even though U Thant flew to Egypt Tuesday to try to calm down Nasser.

Johnson didn't mention U Thant by name Tuesday night when he read a statement on the Middle East to White House newsmen. But he didn't have to when he said: "We are dismayed at the hurried withdrawal of the United Nations Emergency Force from Gaza and Sinai after more than 10 years of steadfast and effective service in keeping the peace, without action by either the General Assembly or the Security Council."

"We continue to regard the presence of the United Nations in the area as a matter of fundamental importance and shall support its continuance with all possible vigor."

U Thant was also criticized in Congress for the obvious reason: What's the sense of a peacekeeping force if it disappears as soon as the peace is disturbed?

As Congress pressed for U.N. intervention to prevent war, while U Thant was in Egypt, the Security Council was called into session today.

The maneuvering so far has been too fuzzy to learn the real motivations but Nasser, even if it all turns out to be a phony front on his part to gain prestige among the Arabs, could hardly have picked a better time for him.

The United States, with its hands full trying to fight the war in Vietnam and opinion on that divided at home, is not in a position to plunge forcefully into a Middle East dispute except as a last resort.

Further — and it's not clear yet whether this was by prearrangement — Nasser quickly got the support of the Soviet Union. This whole thing may be a little trickier than it looks.

It would suit the Soviets fine if the United States, fearing it might get into two conflicts at the same time, suddenly decided to make concessions to North Vietnam to get peace there, at least.

Johnson hasn't flatly backed Israel but he was critical of Egypt for its reported closing of the Gulf of Aqaba, Israel's only outlet on the Red Sea. Nasser has long refused to let Israel use the Suez Canal.

Meanwhile Johnson and Congress, which has been divided on Vietnam, both solidly call for U.N. intervention to prevent an Israeli-Egyptian war.

NO PROUDER GRADUATE will receive a diploma this spring than Michael Kist, of Downers Grove, Ill. Despite a long illness that required much make-up work and, in recent months, lessons received on a telephone hook-up from classrooms of Downers Grove High School North, he graduated with a 3.5 grade average. The diploma was presented to him May 3, in his hospital bed. Looking on are William Carr, his guidance counselor, and his mother, Mrs. John Kist. Michael died less than two weeks later.

Sitdown Strike at Embassy in Rome

ROME (AP) — More than 500 riot police used rubber truncheons today to break up a sit-down near the U. S. Embassy by nearly 1,000 anti-American demonstrators.

More than 20 rioters were injured in the demonstration protesting U. S. military action in Vietnam. About 100 were rounded up for questioning.

The demonstrators approached the embassy after midnight following an antiwar rally at which films of U. S. troops in action in Vietnam were shown. Police guarding the embassy barred the way and the demonstrators sat shouting in the street and at sidewalk cafes while others burned a mockup of a U.S. fighter plane.

100 Missing in Burma Storms

RANGOON (AP) — At least 100 persons are dead or missing following cyclonic storms that swept Burma last week. Property damage has topped $10 million, and on the southwest coast 800 villages were destroyed and more than 100,000 persons left homeless.

Storms from the Indian Ocean with winds reaching 100 miles per hour battered Rangoon, the ancient capital of Mandalay, and the delta regions.

Hardest hit was Kyaukpadaung, a big trading center in the delta. Of 4,000 buildings in the delta town, only 20 were intact after the storm.

The siege of the Alamo is sometimes called the "Thermopylae of America" but, unlike Thermopylae, no man escaped from the Alamo.
